

WESTERN REGIONAL GRADUATE PROGRAM (WRGP)

The Western Regional Graduate Program (WRGP) is an agreement among Western Interstate Commission of Higher Education (WICHE) 16 members, through which participating Western public universities allow WICHE-region students to attend select out-of-state graduate certificate, master’s, and doctoral programs – and pay up to 150 percent of resident tuition. At Nevada State, the WRGP rate is the same as in-state resident tuition. Effective Fall 2023, Nevada State’s only WRGP-eligible program is Speech-Language Pathology (Master’s).

The following WICHE-region states and territories participate in the WRGP program along with Nevada:

- Alaska • Arizona • California • Colorado • Hawai’i • Idaho • Montana • New Mexico
- North Dakota • Oregon • South Dakota • Utah • Washington • Wyoming
- Commonwealth of Northern Marianas Islands and Guam

- Only NEWLY admitted students who are accepted in a WRGP-eligible program may apply.
- The WRGP application process must be completed before the student is in attendance at Nevada State.
- Applicants must have maintained a legal bona fide resident status in a WICHE-region state for at least 12 months prior to the first day of the term of attendance.
- The applicant must also be a U.S. citizen or resident alien.
- Continued eligibility for WRGP status is dependent upon “good standing” based on program requirements.
